

The WCER Brown Bag Lecture Series presents:

(Im)migrant

Students and Families:

Multiple Perspectives and Insights

Join the following panelists for a rich discussion about community reception of new immigrants. Wisconsin's story of immigrant students, instruction, policies and challenges related to immigrant students in public schools, and the implications of immigrant students' perspectives on curriculum practices.

Jill Harrison, Department of Community and Environmental Sociology

Jacqueline A. Iribarren, Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction

Mariana Pacheco, Department of Curriculum and Instruction

Thursday, April 8
11:30 am-12:30 pm

259 Educational Sciences
1025 W. Johnson Street